A Suicide Club.

Bridgeton, N. J., February 24.—A suicide club was formed here with about fifty members last night. John Pierce, a prominent cigar dealer, was chosen President, with Edward Cummings as Secretary. They paraded the streets, each wearing a red ribbon with the skull and crossbones upon it. A supper is to be held each year on Washington's Birthday, when the member who draws the black ball must die within a year. The first supper took place last Wednesday night.

JOHN MACKAY SHOT

His Assailant Then Commits Suicide.

At noon yesterday while John Mackay was standing in the rear of the Lick House W. C. Rippey an old man who had been crazed with stock losses came behind him and after shooting him in the back shot himself in the breast and will die.

The news spread rapidly in the city and caused a tremendous excitement. Mackay walked unassisted to the Palace Hotel.

Mackay's wound was examined by a physician who reported it nothing serious; the ball lodged between the shoulder blades.

The attempt on the life of Mackay was deliberate and premeditated. It was known that he usually appeared on the street in that vicinity soon after the noon hour when in San Francisco. An old man was the one awaiting him. After he shot himself, Rippey exclaimed, "My God! I am satisfied," and fell on the paved court. When driven to the Receiving Hospital he was conscious, but could not articulate. From letters found on his person it was found that his crime was premeditated and that he is denuded. When Mackay's assailant arrived at the Receiving Hospital he was unconscious.

He was shot through the left breast. The bullet went clear through his body and now there is no hope for his recovery. In his pocket was found a letter addressed to the Examiner. It was headed "Food for Reflection." I paid one hundred and fifty thousand dollars for one sapphire to place on the jaded person of his wife. The sum was sufficient to have saved at least five hundred of his paupers from a suicidal grave. Just think of it. Inscribe on his tomb W. C. Rippey."

Another letter was directed to Dr. S. L. Linton, Palace Hotel. On Rippey's body was found a loaded revolver which had not been used, showing that he had two pistols and was prepared to make sure work of it.

Dr. Trossel called at the Receiving Hospital and identified the wounded man as W. C. Rippey. Rippey told him that he had lost considerable money in stock speculation and attributed his losses to Mackay's manipulations.

PASTOR.

When your watch or clock needs repairing, consult Frank Blethen, of the Carson Exchange block. Frank is a skillful workman and moderate in his charges.

Yesterday about 4:30, Allen, who was making a speech hinted that he would talk until 5 o'clock. Inside of five minutes all but the Speaker had left the room. As soon as Allen sat down they all filed back. He took the joke good naturedly and promised to tie his jaw up for today.

Don Caesar de Bazan.

Mr. Foote scored another credit mark with his audience last evening, with his relishing, artistic rendering of Don Caesar de Bazan, the Spanish blood who spent his days with dice, swordplay and gallantry. He made a charming Don Caesar throughout; reckless, cool, jolly and always interesting. His rich voice, his splendid figure and artistic conception of every situation resulted in a most enjoyable evening to the audience, more enjoyable than any they have spent for many months in the Carson theater. The Marjann of Miss Plunkett was a painstaking piece of work, and Miss Howe as Lazarelo and Miss Harriman as Countess de Rotonda received a share of the general approval. The male support was generally good. The song, "Scenes that are Brightest," sung by Miss Swanton behind the scenes, showed a strong, cultivated voice, but would have been more acceptable from over the footlights. It was received with applause.

Tonight Richilieu will be presented and a good performance is assured. This afternoon Kathleen Mavourneen will be the matinee; admission to all parts of the house 25 cents. The matinee is especially for children and during the performance Mr. Foote will recite, by request, "The Bells."

Assembly Bill 99.

Assembly Bill 99, which slipped through the House yesterday afternoon, is a measure to take District Court Advertising out of the hands of the District Judges and place it at the disposal of County Clerks. It was prepared by Sam Davis, who fancies he has strings on the present County Clerk of Ormsby. It is in direct conflict with all existing statutes, and should be promptly consigned to the waste basket by the Senate.—Evening Tribune.

The bill takes nothing out of the hands of the District Judges as there is no law on the statute books placing it in their hands. Some years ago a bill was introduced placing it in the hands of the Judges, but the Judges did not favor the bill and it did not pass.

For years the different officers have been at a loss to know just whose business it is to supervise the Court advertising and this bill settles the responsibility. The statement that it conflicts with existing laws is false, as at present there are no laws bearing on the subject, hence the confusion.

Mitchell is Ready.

Lakewood, N. J., February 24.—Charles Mitchell, the English pugilist left here this morning for New York. Tonight Mitchell will meet "Squire" Abingdon, and the two will leave for Canada, stepping off at Buffalo.

Mitchell and "Squire" will await Brady's party in Canada so as to sign articles for the proposed fight between Mitchell and Corbett. Mitchell took with him a certified check for $10,000, which he will hand over to Stakeholder Blanchard when the articles are signed.
